FORFEITURE ORDER

Adopted: October 31, 2002

Released: November 1, 2002

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Forfeiture Order, we impose a forfeiture of $21,000 on Emmis Radio License Corporation (“Emmis”), licensee of Station WKQX(FM), Chicago, Illinois, for willful and repeated violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1464 and 47 C.F.R. § 73.3999, which prohibit the broadcast of indecent material at certain times of day. We take this action pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(D) and 47 C.F.R. § 1.80(f)(4).

II. BACKGROUND

2. The Commission received complaints that WKQX(FM) broadcast indecent material on March 6, 2001, March 7, 2001 and May 17, 2001 between 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. during the “Mancow’s Morning Madhouse” (“Mancow”) program. The complainant submitted a tape of each of the Mancow programs containing the allegedly indecent material. After reviewing the complainant’s tapes, we issued letters of inquiry to Emmis that included transcripts of the tapes submitted by the complainant. See Attachment. In its response, Emmis stated that it could not verify the accuracy of the transcripts because WKQX(FM) does not routinely archive tapes or transcripts of its programming. However, Emmis argued that even assuming the accuracy of the transcripts, the programming at issue is not patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium, and thus is not actionably indecent.

3. On March 21, 2002, the Bureau issued a Notice of Apparent Liability (“NAL”),¹ which found that the material apparently violated the Commission’s indecency rule. We concluded that a monetary sanction in the base forfeiture amount of $7,000 appeared appropriate with respect to each broadcast. Accordingly, the NAL proposed a forfeiture of $21,000.

4. Emmis submitted a response challenging the NAL’s findings, which we will address here.² Emmis argues that the complained of material does not satisfy the Commission’s

¹ Emmis Radio License Corporation, Notice of Apparent Liability, 17 FCC Rcd 5263 (EB 2002).

² Emmis repeats arguments made in response to the letters of inquiry with respect to the complained of broadcasts. Specifically, Emmis argues that the March 6, 2001 broadcast is less explicit than broadcasts in which no enforcement action was taken, citing the same decisions contained in its response to our letter of definition of broadcast indecency and thus that the NAL should be rescinded and the proposed forfeiture cancelled.

III. DISCUSSION

5. It is a violation of federal law to broadcast obscene or indecent programming. Specifically, Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 1464 (18 U.S.C. § 1464), prohibits the utterance of “any obscene, indecent or profane language by means of radio communication.” Congress has given the Federal Communications Commission the responsibility for administratively enforcing 18 U.S.C. § 1464. In doing so, the Commission may, among other things, impose a monetary forfeiture, pursuant to Section 503(b)(1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1), for broadcast of indecent material in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1464. Federal courts have upheld Congress’s authority to regulate obscene speech and, to a limited extent, indecent speech. Specifically, the U.S. Supreme Court has determined that obscene speech is not entitled to First Amendment protection. Accordingly, Congress may prohibit the broadcast of obscene speech at any time.³ In contrast, federal courts have held that indecent speech is protected by the First Amendment.⁴ Nonetheless, the federal courts consistently have upheld Congress’s authority to regulate the broadcast of indecent speech, as well as the Commission’s interpretation and implementation of the statute.⁵ However, the First Amendment is a critical constitutional limitation that demands we proceed cautiously and with appropriate restraint.⁶ Consistent with a subsequent statute and case law,⁷ under the Commission’s rules, no radio or television licensee shall broadcast obscene material at any time, or broadcast indecent material during the period 6 a.m. through 10 p.m. See 47 C.F.R. § 73.3999.

6. In enforcing its indecency rule, the Commission has defined indecent speech as language that first, in context, depicts or describes sexual or excretory organs or activities. Second, the broadcast must be “patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium.” Infinity Broadcasting Corporation of Pennsylvania, 2 FCC inquiry. In addition, Emmis repeats its arguments that the complaints at issue were initiated by a single individual or group and do not accurately reflect a national community standard for the broadcast medium. Because we believe that these arguments were adequately addressed in the NAL, we do not address them again here.

⁶ ACT I, supra note 5, 852 F.2d at 1344 (“Broadcast material that is indecent but not obscene is protected by the first amendment; the FCC may regulate such material only with due respect for the high value our Constitution places on freedom and choice in what people say and hear.”). *See also United States v. This definition has been specifically upheld by the federal courts.⁸ The Commission's authority to restrict the broadcast of indecent material extends to times when there is a reasonable risk that children may be in the audience. ACT I, supra. As noted above, current law holds that such times begin at 6 a.m. and conclude at 10 p.m.⁹

7. The Commission's indecency enforcement is based on complaints from the public. Once a complaint is before the Commission, we evaluate the facts of the particular case and apply the standards developed through Commission case law and upheld by the courts. See Industry Guidance on the Commission's Case Law Interpreting 18 U.S.C. § 1464 and Enforcement Policies Regarding Broadcast Indecency, 16 FCC Rcd 7999, 8015 ¶ 24 (2001) ("Indecency Policy Statement"). "Given the sensitive nature of these cases and the critical role of context in an indecency determination, it is important that the Commission be afforded as full a record as possible to evaluate allegations of indecent programming." Id. In evaluating the record to determine whether the complained of material is patently offensive, three factors are particularly relevant: (1) the explicitness or graphic nature of the description; (2) whether the material dwells on or repeats at length descriptions of sexual or excretory organs or activities; and (3) whether the material appears to pander or is used to titillate or shock. See Indecency Policy Statement, 16 FCC Rcd at 8003 ¶ 10.

8. As discussed below, we reject Emmis's assertion that the broadcasts on March 6, 2001, March 7, 2001 and May 17, 2001 were not patently offensive, and thus do not meet the Commission's definition of indecent material. We conclude that these broadcasts violated the Commission's indecency rule.

9. First, we disagree with Emmis's assertion that the sexual references contained in the material broadcast on March 6 and March 7, 2001 rely solely on innuendo and are not explicit or graphic. In any event, the Commission has repeatedly held that "innuendo may be patently offensive within the meaning of our indecency definition if it is understandable and clearly capable of a specific sexual or excretory meaning, which in context, is inescapable."¹⁰ The material broadcast on March 6, 2001 contains sexual innuendo, including references to oral sex, genitalia, masturbation, ejaculation and excretory activities. Contrary to Emmis's assertion, the sexual references broadcast on March 6, 2001 were not fleeting.¹¹ The material broadcast on March 7, 2001, which concerns the effect of a sexual stimulant on a female cast member and the reaction of others present to her sexual response has a sexual meaning that is unmistakable. We also reject Emmis's argument that the material broadcast on March 6, 2001 and March 7, 2001

does not appear to have been presented to pander, titillate or shock. Moreover, the material broadcast on March 6, 2001 and March 7, 2001 is similar to other material that has been found to be patently offensive.¹²

10. Emmis also asserts that the May 17, 2001 broadcast contained warnings about the content of the material, and that our NAL did not discuss the relevance of these warnings. However, the NAL found that “[t]he presence of the warnings, considering the overall context of the [May 17, 2001] broadcast, is not a sufficient basis to conclude that the sexual references are not patently offensive.”¹³ In this regard, Emmis also argues that the May 17, 2001 broadcast relies heavily on innuendo and oblique references, and is not pandering, titillating or shocking. We disagree. As we stated in the NAL, the material broadcast on May 17, 2001, which includes numerous sexual references during a discussion among women in the “Mancow” program’s “lava lamp love lounge,” in context, has a sexual meaning that is unmistakable, and is similar to other material found to have clearly understandable sexual references and that has been found to be patently offensive.¹⁴

11. Section 503(b) of the Act and 47 C.F.R. § 1.80 both state that any person who willfully or repeatedly fails to comply with the Act or the Commission’s rules shall be liable for a forfeiture penalty. For purposes of 47 U.S.C. § 503(b), the term “willfully” means that the violator knew that it was taking the action in question, irrespective of any intent to violate the Commission’s rules, while “repeatedly” means more than once.¹⁵ In assessing a forfeiture, we take into account the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.¹⁶

12. The Commission’s Forfeiture Guidelines set a base forfeiture amount of $7,000 for transmission of indecent/obscene materials.¹⁷ After considering all the facts and circumstances, we conclude that the base forfeiture amount is the appropriate sanction for each of the occasions on which WKQX(FM) broadcast indecent material.

¹³ Emmis Radio License Corporation, supra note 1, 17 FCC Rcd at 5267. Emmis includes a purported citation to ¶ 34 of the Indecency Policy Statement. To the extent that this citation is intended to suggest that we failed to completely address Emmis’s argument concerning the presence of warnings, we note that the Indecency Policy Statement concludes at ¶ 31 and does not contain a paragraph numbered “34.”

Y: Hey this is Anger Anderson, the yelling guy and I want to talk about how my spunk-a-thons are always killed by manly mugs. When I flog my beef stick while watching some pink in a porno, I don't wanna see some guy's face, seriously people am I right? Guys in pornos are butt ugly, and right when I'm ready to shoot airborne like number 23 in his heyday, I gotta see some porno dude's face. God, the guys in pornos look like they want to kill these broads. Their faces are so contorted they look like they just smelled a fart, you know the kind of fart right after you've eaten chimichangas, and right before you take a big sh-(beep to cover the word "shit"). Focus on the girl, I don't want to see shaved porno guy luggage either. Show me the pink and all the porno guys are just dripping sweat. Hell, I don't like to work that hard when I box-bang. Oh, also I don't like those endless shots of girls smoking pole. It makes me feel like a homo, get to the sex and keep the camera on the pink, Spielberg.

FV1: How are you?

M: Hi Laurie. Is this stuff legal?

FV1: Yes it is.

M: Okay. Here's what I want you to do.

FV1: Yeah.

M: Not you, Laurie. Prison Bitch (First Male Cast Member) I want you to go over there and I want you just to rub, rub her bottom.

MV1 : Alright.

FV2: Oh no, oh my gosh.

MV2: How does he get the good jobs here?

M: Is it okay? Does he have permission to rub your bottom?

FV2: Yeah. I suppose he has permission. Woah.

MV2: All those months of smelling your finger it's finally paid off for you.

MV1: Which hand?

M: Okay. Use both hands. Just stand behind her and just kind of rub her a little. How many of these bottles have you had?

FV2: I've had two. Woah. Oh my gosh.

M: Is it like ecstasy? Have you done "ex" before?

FV2: Mancow, I've never done ex before but...

M: Now be serious.

FV2: I'm feeling this constant rush.

M: Okay.

FV2: Honestly.

M: Well, is it possible that it is just packed with caffeine? What are you doing? Rub her ass.

MV1: I'm rubbing.

[Background laughter]

FV2: He is rubbing.

MV2: He's doin' it. He is doin' it.

FV2: [Laughing]. Oh my gosh...

M: And you don't stop. By the way that's the greatest... Do you want me to show you how to rub it?

MV2: He's rubbing her ass like it's his husband Robert in front of him.

MV1: Yeah.

M: Yeah they're in the prison cell, Prison Bitch. Yeah.

[FV2 laughing]

FV2: No, but seriously this really works. I'm feeling Duncan Hines right now.

M: Now wait, you're feeling wet and gooey?

FV2: Yes.

M: Is it possible...

FV2: Yeah.

M: Is it possible that it's psychosomatic? Well let me tell you the drink is called "Niagra." We've heard a lot about this and uh other women have told me that it works. What are you doing?

FV2: [laughing such that what she is saying is unintelligible].

MV2: He's rubbing her butt.

M: Don't stop, don't stop dude.

FV2: Really I think that I have to go home and take care of this problem right now.

M: Can he rub up front a little bit?

FV2: [laughing] I don't know about that.

M: Listen. Listen. Let me say something to you. Hey little girl...

MV2: That doesn't sound like a "no" to me.

M: You can see what she looks like at Mancow.com. Can I just say something to you little girl?

FV2: Yeah Mancow.

M: Don't think it's the ugly big nosed dork behind you. Just imagine it's me right there.

FV2: Okay. Why can't it be you?

M: Close your eyes.

FV2: Okay.

M: When was the last time that you had some action?

FV2: Um, actually last night, Mancow. Um my a boyfriend -I'm not very sexually experienced you know- and my boyfriend, he wanted to get me up to two fingers but I was kind of reluctant. And um he did it. And uh it was incredible. But um I had some of this Niagra stuff and I was pretty moist and um...

M: Okay. All right, all right. You must have just gotten out of the shower. Your whole body was wet.

FV2: Right.

M: Seriously, do you really think it's real or is it psychosomatic?

FV2: No, Mancow.

M: How nice is that ass?

MV2: That's a nice ass.

MV1: Okay, wait a minute. Look, look...

[Laughter]

M: He's got a woody. He's got a woody. Prison Bitch has a woody. Prison Bitch has a woody.

FV2: No he doesn't ...

MV1: I do too.

M: But how could you not ? How could you not? How could you not? How could you not? How could you not?

MV2: But you're saying is this stuff for real. Look at Prison Bitch's face. He looks like... He looks like that Gonzo from the muppets. Look at that nose on him. There's no way that you could get turned on by him normally.

FV2: Seriously, I think that this stuff really does work.

M: Laurie, Laurie is the creator of a of Niagra.

MV2: He's slapping her ass. He's spanking her.

M: Don't slap it, rub it nice.

FV2: He's getting violent.

M: Laurie, Laurie, talk to me about this stuff.

FV1: Yes. This is a herb drink that comes from Sweden and it's got the main ingredient that is a sexual stimulant for the women is the domiana amate.

M: Those were uh two people that were on "Survivor" several years ago.

FV1: Exactly. [Laughs].

M: And uh, talk to me about this. Okay. So, so it really does work?

FV1: Yes it does work.

M: How can people get this stuff?

FV1: Okay. Right now we are the national distributors for the United States, Canada...

M: Gotcha. How can they get it?

FV1: They can call our number at (501) xxx- xxxx.

M: How many uh drinks does it take before uh a stranger be willing to open her legs for me?

FV1: Uh, one drink and within twenty minutes you'll feel it in your body.

FV2: That's true. Right after twenty minutes...

MV2: She just raised her hand when you said that.

FV2: Exactly. Right after twenty minutes I was just feeling it.

FV1: Right.

FV2: I was feeling so excited and invigorated. It was amazing.

M: When you say excited are you talking about in a uh sexual way?

FV2: In a sexual way, Mancow. I mean, I felt it.

M: Well let me tell you something. I haven't had a sip of this stuff and I am... I'm turned on right now. 'Cause you got, you got a hot little body. She does have a great body.

MV2: I'm turned on just by seeing Prison Bitch with wood.

MV1: She's got a smokin' little can.

M: What? What?

MV1: Your can smokes.

FV2: Thanks, Prison Bitch. I appreciate that.

M: She's got a smokin' ass.

MV1: She's got a smokin' little can.

FV2: And he's still rubbing my butt.

M: Yeah. Keep rubbing it.

FV2: Get him to rub something else.

very good. And it's important, I think, you know... just a nice size.

G: Subway submarine – all protein and no fat grams.

F: Wait I have a question. I have a question though. Don't you think that too big can be too big?

G: Yeah, it can be painful.
The straddle walk looking like a...

F: Yeah, that's not fun. That's not fun.

G: I don't think that size matters with back door sex though.

M: Okay, okay, alright. I'm going to shut it down here for a minute. Listen, we uh absolutely have to keep it clean. We're on the radio and again, if you're easily offended, please turn off the radio. We are having a serious conversation, and uh, hopefully medical terms about things of a sexual nature. Uh, certainly a relationship nature.

F: Do any of you ladies do the two finger swirly?

G: Yeah, all the time.

I don't just use two fingers though.

I'm doing it now.

F: How often do you jill off?

G: Once a day at least. In the morning before I go to work.

F: Wow, good for you.

G: I'm maybe once a month.

I had three yesterday.

Before I go to bed for a good night's sleep

F: For a good night's sleep, yeah.

G: Couple times a day just depending on how busy my workload is

G: I think that it depends on if there is a guy in my life.

Or the lack of guy in my life.

G: Do you do it like in the office?

G: If there's a guy in my life, that really, and we're not like...it's the preliminaries. And I'll go home.

G: Yeah. Definitely.

G: The warm up.

It increases when you start dating somebody, and then it kind of decreases when you've been dating them for a while.

F: What does stuff taste like? And you know what stuff I'm talking about. The stuff...

G: It depends on what the man eats. Warm salt butter.

It's his nutrition it really is.

Protein--

It's good for your hair.

F: It's good for your hair (laughs). Honey, will you condition my hair tonight?

G: I recently had a guy who was surprising sweet. Like I had never experienced it before. It was like sugar, like molasses.

F: Does he eat like a lot of oranges or...

G: He must be on some Vegan diet or...

Have you ever been with a guy who's eat'n like jalapeño peppers or something like that – really spicy, and you are like what, and it's just not right?

F: No, it's just pungent. Have you ever had the pungent one?

G: Oh definitely...

M: [Cuts off discussion] Okay, again it's a little um-hum...

F: Ladies, keep it clean

M: Alright, next question.

F: Alright. Guys like apparent panty lines. Guys like apparent panty lines and camel toe.

Do you know what camel toe is? It's when the big front... uh.

M: [Ahem, clears his throat]

G: It's uncomfortable, it hurts, it's hard to sit.

If I was a guy, I wouldn't want to see panty lines

G: Yeah, panty lines are tacky.

[unintelligible] hanging out the side of them.

You would think that they wouldn't want to see panty lines because you know that means that you aren't wearing any underwear. If you can't see 'em.

G: That's the whole reason behind thongs, so that you know, I mean, thongs are sexy.

Pants off.

G: When you take your pants off, and you have a thong on, you know that turns them on.

Totally, when you take your pants off right from behind and that thong going down.

Personally, I like the panties that have a little stuff missing down there... I'm not sure if I can say that here.

G: Crotchless.

Yeah, yeah.

Camel Toe Song

[Sound effects of rubber being squeezed and twisted]

Guy: Oh-my-God, look at the clam on that bitch.

Song: She's got a crack in the back and a crack in the front, it's called camel toe/

Camel toe.

She's got a bulge like a man, but it's just her clam. Yeah it's camel toe.

Camel toe.

She's so... damn tight.
